St. Thomas More Society of Alaska

The St. Thomas More Society of Alaska is an association of the faithful from the Archdiocese of Anchorage and is an organization sponsored by lawyers and public servants who are practicing members of their respective faiths.

The purpose and objective of this Society is to:

- ◆ Promote and foster the high standards of ethics and professional responsibility exemplified by our patron, St. Thomas More, who as a family man and lawyer showed lawyers and lay people how to rightly order their lives.

- ◆ Inculcate in its members and the public a deeper understanding of their dependence upon Almighty God as the source of all human rights.
 - ◆ Promote the study of theology, philosophy, and jurisprudence to the end that the system of law may better apply eternal truths to the solution of everyday legal problems.
 - ◆ Sponsor Masses of the Holy Spirit, including the annual Red Mass, to invoke God's Blessings upon the legal profession and persons in government, and to promote the spiritual and moral welfare of its members.
 - ◆ To offer continued formation for lawyers on the relationship between their faith and their profession.

The Ideals of St. Thomas More:

The legal profession is a high calling with corresponding responsibilities to society. The principal objective of every lawyer is to promote and seek justice. The ideal for lawyers is to always pursue the truth in both their spiritual and professional lives. The duty of a Christian lawyer is to remain faithful to God, His Church and its teaching at all times despite the personal consequences.

Sponsored events:

- * Monthly Mass and formation on the first Thursday of the month at the Chancery for the Archdiocese of Anchorage (225 Cordova Street).
- * The annual Red Mass for Lawyers and Public Officials
- * Periodic continuing education and formation
