WYD Alaska Style

SATURDAY, JULY 19, 2008—1PM TO 10PM

What is WYD - Alaska Style?

WYD - Alaska Style is an opportunity to join Archbishop Roger Schwietz and young adults from the Archdiocese of Anchorage and across Alaska to participate together locally in WYD08 being held in Sydney, Australia with music, food, prayer, and sharing. The day's events will center on the WYD theme received from Pope Benedict XVI: You will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you will be my witnesses. Acts 1:8.

WYD - Alaska Style will culminate with the celebration of the World Youth Day Mass with Pope Benedict via live cable feed from Australia. WYD - Alaska Style events also include:

Catechesis: Centered on this year's WYD theme, we'll learn about and discuss the Holy Spirit and our mission in the light of the Pentecost event; the theme will be developed in three stages:

Called to live in the Holy Spirit

Holy Spirit: Soul of the Church

Sent Out Into the World: The Holy Spirit, the Principal Agent of the Mission

Prayer: Opportunities to join together in prayer will include the Stations of the Cross, evening prayer, and a prayer service with reconciliation.

Festival -Alaska Style: featuring music from local groups, dancing, games and fun activities, and lots of barbecue!

Who's Invited?

All young adults between the ages of 18 and 40.

When and Where?

WYD - Alaska Style will be held on July 19, 2008 at the Holy Spirit Retreat Center on upper O'Malley in Anchorage; doors open at 1:00 p.m.

How Much?

If you register before July 5, the cost is only $10 per person. After July 5th and at the door, the cost is $12. For parish groups of five or more, a discount rate of $5 per person is available. Contact Cindy Lentine at the Archdiocese of Anchorage to find out more about a group from your parish. The registration fee includes the food and entertainment at the Festival.
